Job Training Funds Available for the Long Term Unemployed Orientation Session February 26 in Cadillac

CADILLAC, MI –A special limited time program can help pay the job training costs for northern Michigan residents who have been out of work for an extended period of time. On-the-Job Training for the Long Term Unemployed is being offered by Northwest Michigan Works!, a program of the Northwest Michigan Council of Governments (NWMCOG). An informational orientation session about the On-the-Job Training program will be held February 26 from 10:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. at the Cadillac Michigan Works! Service Center located at 401 Lake Street.

On-the-Job Training teaches job-specific skills under the close supervision and guidance of a business. The trainee is hired for a permanent position, and learns while performing the job duties. The employer is reimbursed a portion of the worker's wages during the training period. "It's a win-win for the business and the job seeker," said Janie McNabb, director of program development at NWMCOG.

Individuals who were laid off from their previous job and have been unemployed for 16 weeks or more in the last two years might qualify for the program. Northwest Michigan Works! conducts screening and assessment for the program.

The orientation sessions will provide an overview of the program and include pre-screening interviews. Those who are interested should pre-register by calling Emily at the Northwest Michigan Council of Governments, 800-692-7774. Those who attend the sessions should bring a current copy of their résumé and dress for an interview.
