New Report Reviews Results of Northwest Lower Michigan 2022 Wage Survey

TRAVERSE CITY, MI – A new report looks at the wages for hundreds of jobs in northwest Lower Michigan. The 2022 Wage Survey gave businesses the opportunity to provide hourly and salary wage information for 29 job families containing a total of 677 job titles. Networks Northwest collaborated with multiple business and community partners to conduct the survey which targeted businesses of all sizes, within all industries, throughout the 10-county region.

This is the first regional wage survey for northwest Lower Michigan since 2013. The current research was initiated to provide updated, reliable wage data for businesses located in northwest Lower Michigan. In addition to wage data, the report contains information about participating businesses' county of primary location, primary industry, size, union or non-union status, and what benefits are offered.

The Northwest Lower Michigan 2022 Wage Survey Report is available at, nwm.org/WageSurvey.
