Employers and Community Organizations Invited to Be Part of Job Fair @ Railroad Square in Kalkaska

KALKASKA, MI — Local employers and community organizations will be featured at a community event Wednesday, September 8 in downtown Kalkaska. The Job Fair @ Railroad Square will take place at the new pavilion and open space at Railroad Square, 107 S. Elm St. and will give attendees the opportunity to meet with employers and community organizations from Kalkaska, Antrim, Crawford, Grand Traverse, and Wexford counties. The event will run from 10 am - 2 pm and is being hosted by the Kalkaska Downtown Development Authority and Northwest Michigan Works!

The Job Fair @ Railroad Square is open to the public and there is no cost to participate. Employers and community organizations will need to register in advance and should bring their own tables, chairs, canopy and any other items they will need for this in-person event. Registration is available at nwm.org/JobFairRailroadSquare. Registration closes Thursday, September 2 at the end of day.

For more information, please contact Northwest Michigan Works! at 231.922.3700.
