Public Input Opportunity: Wexford County Parks & Recreation Plan Community Open House

Residents and visitors are invited to provide additional feedback and comment regarding the County's goals and objectives, future projects, and more at a drop-in Open House September 28 at the Cadillac Wexford Library.

CADILLAC, MI – The development of the Wexford County Parks and Recreation Plan is nearing completion. Residents and visitors are invited to attend the Wexford County Parks and Recreation Community Open House on Thursday, September 28, 2023 from 4:00 pm to 6:45 pm at the Cadillac Wexford Public Library meeting room, 411 S. Lake St. The drop-in session is designed to give members of the public an opportunity to further refine some of the goals and objectives for County Parks and Recreation, including funding and future projects. Networks Northwest staff will be on hand for discussion, comments or questions.

More information on the plan development and plan documents, as they are developed, can be found at nwm.org/wexfordrecplan
